

Rabbi Ephraim Hochberg is a native of Baltimore. He attended Yeshiva Beth Moshe in Scranton for eight years. After his marriage to his aishes chayil, Sori, Rabbi Hochberg continued his learning at Bais Medrash Govoha in Lakewood for three years. They then moved to Chicago to join the Chicago Community Kollel. Rabbi Hochberg joined the Yeshivas Tiferes Tzvi staff ten years ago as the sixth grade Rebbe. He continues to guide and motivate his sixth grade talmidim with his warmth and good humor, which inspires them beyond the walls of his classroom. Rabbi Hochberg is a gifted Rebbe who caters to the class as a whole, while giving the individual talmid the attention and chizuk he needs.

Rabbi Hochberg also shares his talents with Chicago Torah Network where he is the Individualized Study Coordinator. He facilitates the growth of those seeking to learn more about Torah and mitzvos.

Rabbi and Mrs. Hochberg are the proud parents of Hadassah Rochel, Esther Miriam, Chana Zessel and Menachem who are students at JDBY-YTT.
